Email questions: midwestbucksale@gmail.com

Instructors: Market, Evie Gates

Dairy, Caroline Warren and Sherry Poepe

Youth Leaders Team: Carsyn Petree, Raylyn Wilfong, Bailee Vogel, Chloe Marquardt, and Mackenzie Hill

CAMP GOAL:

Camp Goal: This a (full) two-day camp and is intended to provide a hands-on experience, giving participants. The third day is the final showmanship competition.

Each child has an opportunity to work with their project, learning the tools they need to feel confident in the arena. Showmanship is the primary focus of the camp. The youth in attendance will learn other husbandry and selection/score card techniques. Each youth will receive a workbook with a variety of important information.

Campers are divided into age groups. Junior, Intermediate, and Senior. We do adjust for ability and experience.

The Final Showmanship Competition will be on Friday morning, beginning at 8:00 am for a quick tune up and competition begins with Seniors at 9:00 am sharp.

WHAT TO BRING

Goats: Two goats - broke to lead (preferably a doe & a wether) If a child only has one goat, that is fine.

All stock must have a current health certificate from a licensed veterinarian, within 30 days of the event.

NO DOGS. Please leave your dogs at home. Personal assistant dogs should not be brought near the arena while children are practicing or showing. Please keep dogs in a pen, in a personal cage, or your trailer. Out of sight while children are in the arena or showing/practicing. (The goats react to strange dogs, this is asked to protect the children while they are practicing and exhibiting their goats).

Equipment: You will need to bring along the following items - (bring what you have)

Trimming Stand

Electric Clippers

Blower/Dryer

Halters

Leads

Hoof Trimmers

Feed and Feeders/Feed Pans
